ISSUED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING IN TIME FOR THE MAILS

MRS. LANGTRY IN SAN FRANCISCO.

A Lady's Account of the First Night.

(Special Correspondence of The Colonist.)

After 5 years of familiarity with Mrs. Langtry's name, Mrs. Langtry's photos, in every style, some of them almost irreconcilably different, Mrs. Langtry's costumes, and a great deal of Mrs. Langtry's doings, five years of Mrs. Langtry's essence as it were, we have at last met Mrs. Langtry in the flesh. And can anything surpass Mrs. Langtry in the flesh? Nothing that I have seen, I confess. I will not deny that the desire to see the first of the professional beauties, whose name has since been Legion, was the motive which drew me to the Baldwin on the evening of the 16th of June, the "first night" of the Lily. A first night has its own fascination to the habitual theatre-goer, you know, but when is added to that the fact that the "one fair woman" over whom Oscar and his coaesthetes had gone "wild" indeed, describing her superlative loveliness by such phrases as "tower of ivory," "red rose of fire" and ever so many more utterly outrageous forms of expression, you can easily imagine the height of expectancy and excitement this particular audience had arrived at before the lady herself came on the stage.

Of course the poor woman has had some frightful criticism launched at her since she made her first bold plunge into the life of a public actress—from that high position which she held as first favorite in the Prince of Wales set. But she has shown what she is made of. She has proved herself to be true grit right through, and during her recent vacation has studied hard and devoted herself to the acquirement of those accomplishments which show the true actress and to-day it is not the reputation of her beauty which "draws" any more than the undoubted merit of her individual performance.

A writer in the New York Critic once wrote to her: "As an actress she can never rise higher than burlesque comic opera and 'leg pieces' generally." But he has been compelled to take that back, and acknowledge that her pluck, industry and intelligence are far greater than the public expected of her and will land her on a far higher place of theatrical success.

Long before 8 o'clock the audience began to arrive, and when the curtain rose, a little after 8, the house was packed from floor to roof. It was a brilliant scene. The audience was composed largely of women, the most fashionable set was represented in all its bravery of dress, diamonds, nodding plumes and costly fans waving incessantly, for the night was very warm, and besides these, culture, talent and beauty contributed their numbers to swell an audience which could not fail to delight the heart of the Lily of Jersey.

The crowded house was worked up to the highest degree of expectancy, and the tumultuous applause which greeted Mrs. Langtry when she appeared was as much the desire to work off some of its own superabundant excitement as to pay a compliment to her. However, as the play progressed, that was all changed, for it was easy to see that the actress was gaining on the beauty and while there were many to declare themselves disappointed in her face there were few who were disappointed in her acting. It was an agreeable disappointment. In several of the situations she showed especially to advantage, quite to the surprise of those captious critics who feel it their duty to cry down every thing new.

The play itself is very nice—and I mean nice—for while it is an adaptation of a French play, and had for its principal characters the usual doting husband, a little old, a lovely young wife suffering from crimes, a villain to do all the mischief and officious friends to make all the trouble, these were all so refined and elegant of their kind, that it was a delight to meet them even on the stage, and when I add that each part was played with a delicacy and finish rarely seen on the stage where sin is generally made all too apparent, and coquetry usually developed into a very vulgar amusement, you may know that it was a very nice play. I must tell you of one bit of acting which took us all by surprise and to tell the truth we thought the thing an accident, until the papers this morning gave us the information that it was a part of the performance. I allude to the fainting fit in which she indulges in the third act. She fell backwards on a sofa and from that to the floor where she rolled completely over as you have seen children do in play until she lay flat on her back with arms extended. It was frightful, I assure you, and the audience held its breath, till she appeared before the curtain none the worse for her trouble.

I need not tell you that she was relieved with cheers and flowers till she did not know where to turn. Indeed she was recalled three times after that act, and men and women clumbed on their seats all eager to get one glimpse of this lovely woman.

Her hair is fairer than we were led to expect from descriptions we have read. A goldy glint all over it but not at all golden hair, understand; but the beauty and grace of her figure who can describe. She is fond of turning her back on the audience and I cannot blame her. With such a back a pretty face is a superfluity. In her evening dress, in the 3rd act, it was very evident why the aesthete gave her her name of Lily, for anything human more like a lily it is difficult to imagine.

Her dresses are very fine indeed, made in Paris at the establishment of Madame Doucet, and are worthy to be worn by Mrs. Langtry.

I think she will have a great success in San Francisco and I shall be glad of it, for she has worked hard and has had great difficulties to overcome, and will continue to have before she reaches the goal at which she aims—to be a great actress—if she ever reaches it at all, which is doubtful.

This particular play, "A Wife's Peril," really requires very little vigorous acting except in the 3rd act and in that she was in every way satisfactory.

Farm and Garden Notes.

ORCHARDS AND MANURE.—The heavier an orchard is cropped the more manure it requires. From 100 to 200 pounds each of bone dust and kainit (potash salts) per acre is recommended by the best orchardists.

TOBACCO AS AN INSECTICIDE.—A strong solution of tabacco is an efficacious remedy for many insect pests. Buy tobacco stems and soak them in water, a gallon to a pound of stems. The stonger the solution the better. Apply with a syringe.

ENCILAGE.—The New York Hearld says:—We are convinced from various sources that corn for ensilage may be cut too green, and that if it is left until it slightly changes color, it is less likely to sour. Besides, it than holds its juices the better, though, perhaps, it does not pack so deep.

CATTLE IN JUNE.—Give the milch cows a little hay at the barn at night and a little grain. The feed may be abundant in the pasture, but it is so juicy and succulent that it increases the flow of milk greatly and often at the expense of the flesh of the animal. If they lose flesh now it will take more grain to make it up in the fall than it would to keep up what they have now. —Cultivator.

SMALL FRUITS.—A sprinkle of powdered white hellebore on the currant bushes will easily dispose of the currant worm. Currants, blackberries, and raspberries need hoeing around, and if they are well mulched the fruit will be larger and finer. If the strawberries were not mulched last spring they should have a handful of cut straw or hay around each plant now to keep the berries up out of the dirt.—Cultivator.

THE QUNTITY OF SUMMER EGGS.—At this season of the year it is somewhat difficult to keep eggs in good condition. One reason, perhaps, is that the fowls, allowed to run at large, pick up not of their living, and getting less grain, the orginal quality of the eggs is more so good. Careful attention to feeding and giving plenty of pure water are as important now as at any season.

If you want to grow fruit to show at the fair of any kind, thin out thoroughly now, especially so with grapes, taking a pair of fine pointed scissors and cutting our part of the grapes on each bunch. The balance will be very much larger, and be sure to give the plant upon which you are growing such fruit plenty of mulch, and if well mulched an occasional watering with lye leached through a mixture of manure. Also, a liberal dressing of plaster assists to make such fruit larger. Thinning and working, however, are main things.

STEINWAY & SONS' PIANOS.

LETTER FROM DR. FRANZ LISZT, THE GREATEST LIVING TONE-MASTER.

WEIMAR, November, 1883.

MR. STEINWAY:

MOST ESTEEMED SIR:—Again I owe you many and special thanks. The new Steinway Grand is a glorious masterpiece in power, sonority, singing quality and perfect harmonic effect, affording delight even to my old piano weary fingers. Ever continuing success remains a beautiful attribute of the world renowned firm of Steinway & sons.

In your letter, highly esteemed sir, you mention some new features in the Grand Piano, viz: The vibrating body being bent into form out of one continuous piece, and that portion of the strings heretofore lying dormant, being now a part of and thus incorporated as partial tones into the foundation tones. Their utility is emphatically guaranteed by the name of the inventor.

Owing to my ignorance of the mechanism of piano construction, I can but praise the magnificent result in the "volume and quality of sound."

In relation to the use of your welcome tone sustaining pedal, I enclose two examples: "Danse des Sylphes," by Bernoz, and No. 3 of my "Consolations."

I have to-day noted down only the introductory bars of both pieces, with this proviso, that, if you desire it, I shall gladly complete the whole transcription, with exact adaptation of your tone-sustaining pedal. Very respectfully and gratefully,

F. LISZT.

ELECTION BY LOT.

This is the title of a pamphlet recently published by Messrs. Dawson Bros., Montreal. It is evidently the work of a scholar, and puts forward the somewhat novel idea of "Election by Lot as the only remedy for political corruption." Of course, there are a very large class that would be very sorry to see political corruption done away with, and with such the remedy would be worse than the disease. The author argues that the weak spot in our political system is government by one class, and that the least educated and least intelligent, the government of the professional politician and the wire-puller, which means corruption. The remedy he advocates is election of members of parliament by lot, which he admits would be a very dull and solemn affair as compared with a lively canvass. He says the independent journals of the Dominion are beginning to point out the danger which threatens the country from the increasing indifference of the people to corruption in all our national departments and institutions, and the fact that our political life is rather actuated by "a spirit of brigandage than of patriotism." He concludes, therefore, "that we must either mend our ways or take our punishment when it comes." He says that nowhere than in Canada is the government more of the people, by the people and for the people, and yet government by one class only constitutes the weak spot in our political system, as it is equally dangerous for one man or one class to be trusted with unlimited political power. He says in Canada the politician and wire-puller are everywhere, buying and being bought, and that it is hardly prudent to engage in large undertakings unless backed up by the government and its gang of wire-pullers. When the popular politician holds forth the people always expect that something is going to be done for them, and he must be lavish in promises if he would succeed. The government, like the Spanish barber, is expected to be everywhere at once, and this growing dependence of the people on their corrupt rulers is one of the worst signs of the times. The author then instances the introduction of the system of election by lot among the Greeks, with the intention of putting an end to electioneering intrigues, and says, "That an intelligent people, like the Greeks, should have been reduced to the alternative of trying election by lot, with a view to diminishing the corrupt influence of the wire-puller, is an awful satire on popular government," but anybody who contemplates the present position of Canada will quite agree that the system "might give us better men, but could not give us worse." He concludes by saying that Sir John is the first and greatest statesman of Canada, and he is likely to be the last, and proposes that he should crown his brilliant career by giving us this much needed reform—"a reform which would prove fatal to the wire-puller, and which might save the country from the fate which threatens it—death from political trichinosis."

A "GRAVE" OVERSIGHT.

Yesterday's leading article in our morning contemporary arraigned the Provincial government for neglecting the old cemetery. It goes on to say that although attention was called to the discreditable condition of the fence, both by the public press and the city council some time ago, no movement has yet been made by the government to repair the fence. Now, if the grievance monger of the Standard had been as much on the alert as he ought to have been, he would have known that nearly a week ago tenders for erecting a beautiful new fence round the old cemetery were advertised for by the government, and we are now in a position to inform him that the contract has been awarded and the work under way. The undue eagerness of our contemporary to find some excuse for railing against the government frequently leads him into making an exhibition of himself.

A SCHEME for the supplying of the outlying portions of the city with water, and the better supplying of the city generally for fire and domestic purposes, has been suggested by Mr. Hendry, the city engineer. It is proposed to make a reservoir near the general hospital and another at the highest point near Regent's park. This would give a much better force, and a surer supply of pure water, as that from the reservoir at Regent's park would be filtered into the one at the hospital, and thence into the city pipes. This scheme is to be submitted to a meeting of engineers and other prominent men on Friday afternoon, when the feasibility and cost will be considered and the matter then submitted to the council for its approval, and if the matter be favorably entertained by that body the electors will be called upon to grant power for the raising of a loan to carry out the project.

THE paragraph in the Standard of yesterday in reference to Mr. D. W. Higgins going east for the purpose of purchasing new and modern machinery, is quite in keeping with the unprogressive mind of the management of that sheet. Since such a poor success has been achieved by the ancient methods of working used by the Standard, it would be wise on its part to keep silence at the enterprise of more progressive men. The Colonist presses, we are happy to state, are worked to their fullest capacity, rendering it necessary the introduction of more rapid machinery.

THE misery entailed on the people of Ireland by the agrarian murders and outrages during the recent agitation is shown by the large amount of money paid in compensation to the relatives of the victims. Under the crimes act no less a sum than £45,175 has lately been awarded for murders and personal injuries, the sum including £24,250 compensation for thirty six murders within the last four years. The very large amount expended in the cost of extra police and military expeditions will swell the bill to a high total. This is a big bill but how much does England owe of it?

THIS morning at ten o'clock will commence the first annual meeting of the provincial Women's Christian Temperance Union in the Pandora street hall, which has been profusely decorated with bunting and flowers for the occasion and presents a tasty appearance. There will be a morning and afternoon session on Thursday and Friday to which the public are cordially invited.

QUEEN VICTORIA has just attained her 65th year, an age which has been exceeded by nine only of the sovereigns of England dating from the Norman conquest, viz., Henry I. and Edward I., who both attained 67 years; Queen Elizabeth, who lived 69 years; James II., 68 years; George I., 67; George II., 77 years; George III., 82 years; George IV., 68, and William IV., 72 years. On June 20th she will have reigned over the United Kingdom for 47 years, a length of time which has been exceeded by three of the kings of England only, viz., Henry III., who reigned 56 years, Edward III., who reigned 55 years, and George III., whose reign lasted nearly 60 years. Victoria is also the oldest European monarch with three exceptions—The emperor of Germany, who is 87 years of age; the king of the Netherlands, 67; and the king of Denmark, 66.

NOTWITHSTANDING the misfortune of Arctic explorers and the little practical good gained in return Baron Nordenskjold asks for £200,000 to spend on an expedition to the other end of the globe. Many people have been accustomed to regard the south as sunny, and that notion will do as far down as the equator and a long way beyond, but when it becomes a question of poles it is the north that is sunny and the south that is dark. The north pole is enjoying now about as much summer as it ever will and the south pole is by far the more wintry of the two. If there is any chance to learn about poles the north pole is still the most favorable pole for study although it can't be called promising.

THE St. Paul Pioneer Press had a special from Chicago during the convention telling the world that "Roosevelt, the young New York reformer," wore not only "a brillant smile, lighted by electrically bright teeth, unrimmed glasses over merry eyes, and a dark straw hat with the straighest of brims," but also "No. 34 undershirts and No. 32 drawers." This is getting statesmen down to a fine point.

AT a recent session of the Toronto Anglican synod, when amendments to the constitution came up on the 7th section, defining who shall be entitled to vote for lay representatives, Mr. Berwick moved that the word "persons" be substituted for "males." The effect of this amendment would have been to give women a right to vote. The amendment was lost, only ten voting for it.

THERE are rumors rife that the Hon. Mr. Chapleau will come to this province to rearrange matters with the government, but as there is no authentic source for the information, the probability is that it had its birth in the imagination of the Globe's Ottawa correspondent.

Woman Suffrage.

TO THE EDITOR:—Before committing ourselves irrevocably to woman suffrage, there are some matters which should be considered. We know that the fair sex select their tradesman, doctor, lawyer and mechanic mainly on account of their society or church affiliations, and with little regard for their skill. Is it not likely that they would choose their political candidate on the same grounds? And as ladies are not admitted to any great extent in the various societies, and most of them belong to some church, would we not be likely to have too much church in politics, and the array of nincompoops in our legislative halls markedly increased, to say nothing of the addition to the army of church parasites of a host of embryo statesmen. Making religious belief the test of professional or business capacity costs woman not rarely her fortune and life—in politics it might ruin the state.

There is a spirit of personal freedom abroad to which might be aroused against the church. We want, aye demand that the coming British Columbian shall feel that his success in life shall depend on his own merits.

If we want church pews occupied by those who seek the patronage of the congregation, woman suffrage would crowd them. Is it to be feared, too, that the laws would soon assume a bluish tinge.

E. STEVENSON.

View street, June 23d.

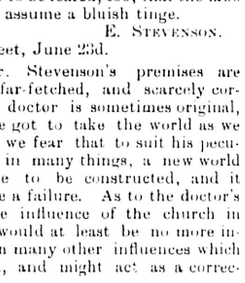

[ED.—Dr. Stevenson's premises are somewhat far-fetched, and scarcely correct. The doctor is sometimes original, but we have got to take the world as we find it, and we fear that to suit his peculiar views in many things, a new world would have to be constructed, and it might prove a failure. As to the doctor's fears of the influence of the church in politics, it would at least be no more injurious than many other influences which now prevail, and might act as a corrective.]

Concerning "Our Man About Town."

TO THE EDITOR:—I was greatly surprised to see a communication in last evening's edition of a local paper openly asserting that if citizens of Victoria use a certain street they must not complain of being insulted in the most flagrant manner. This is pretty good assurance on the part of any one to make such an assertion, and it is rather out of place for comparative strangers to insinuate that our people are in the habit of making use of the street referred to, out of curiosity, and to lend their countenance to any who would defend such outrages.

KOOTENAY.

Indian Joe Escapes --- Idaho Miners at Kootenay.

(Special to The Colonist.)

Joe, one of the two Indians who was imprisoned at Kootenay for murder, escaped from gaol and has not yet been re-arrested. The evidence to come before the Supreme Court at the trial of this Joe would, it is thought, implicate the others.

Some eight or ten miners are on their way from Sand Point, Idaho, to prospect Bull River, Kootenay.

Wesley Church.

The adjourned quarterly official board of this church met last night in order to close up the financial business of last year. The year's record indicated a prosperous condition. There had been raised by the congregation for all purposes during the year over $5,700. Of this amount $800 had been paid out for missionary, educational and other commercial funds, and $1,300 had been handed in by the ladies to reduce a long standing debt upon the church property. Earnest measures are now being matured by the indefatigable ladies, and also by the young men of the congregation, to pay off what remains of the debt, during the current year, thus leaving the church more free for aggressive and evangelistic work. This meeting was also the occasion for closing the official relations of pastor and board, which have subsisted with the greatest harmony during the past three years. Over eighty have been received into membership by letter and otherwise during the same period. A committee was appointed to prepare a resolution to be presented to the retiring pastor.

Hymeneal.

Yesterday morning Christ Church Cathedral was the scene of a brilliant wedding. Mr. D. M. Eberts was married to Miss Mabel H., eldest daughter of William Charles, Esq., the ceremony being performed according to the full rites of the church by the Right Rev. Bishop Hill, Bishop of Columbia, assisted by the Rev. Percival Jenns, Rector of St. John's church. The church was full to overflowing. The bridal party arrived at eleven o'clock and were received at the chancel by the bridegroom and the invited guests. The bride was attired in white satin and velvet brocade. A long tulle veil was caught with sprays of maiden hair fern and the flowers worn were white roses. Miss Charles, sister of the bride, was in pink satin and crepe, and Miss Wark, second bridesmaid, in cream white brocaded with large crimson flowers. Messrs Arthur L. Jones and Gavin Burns were groomsmen.

The American Coast and Geodetic Survey.

His honor the lieut. governor has received a telegram from Ottawa permitting Mr. B. A. Colonna of the American C. and G. Survey to land at all points in British territory that he may deem necessary for the erection of marks and signals during the operations in the Straits of Fuca.

THE SEATTLE THEATRE.—Mr. J. A. Howe has leased the late Alhambra theatre at Seattle, and so enlarged and refurnished it that it is now one of the prettiest theatres in the Northwest. It is now known as the Standard Theatre, with Mr. Howe as manager, and has a seating capacity of 800. The Italian Opera Co. have been playing to crowded houses in it during the past week.

"SONG WORSHIP."—This is the title of a new collection of hymns for Sunday schools by L. C, Emerson and W. F. Sherman, and published by Oliver Ditson & Co., Boston. The collection comprises nearly 200 choice selections of sacred songs, and will no doubt come into extensive use in Sabbath school worship.

GIRLS' PUBLIC SCHOOL.—In addition to the prizes of the girls' public school already published, three others have been given in the 1st division—viz: To Annie Hicks, for regular attendance; Minnie Robertson, for general improvent; and Nettie Becker, for deportment and regular attendance.

FROM LYTTON TO PORT MOODY.—The passenger train which left Lytton at five o'clock Tuesday morning reached Port Moody at six o'clock the same evening. This is quite a change from the former slow rate of travelling.

THE PROVINCIAL W.C.T.U. will hold their annual meeting in the Temperance hall on Thursday and Friday of this week. On the evenings of these days Mrs. Judith E. Foster will deliver a lecture in the Methodist church. See advertisement. 3t*

The Quarantined Steamship.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. Harry West, accompanied by a Colonist reporter and several others, visited the unfortunate steamship lying outside Albert Head. The passengers were delighted to see the party and were glad to learn that at last there was some definite information in reference to their release; but cannot understand why the freight should be landed and they detained. Decayed fruit is being constantly thrown overboard. They are all well, and satisfied with the food given and the attention paid them, but of course are chafing under a confinement, which they can see no reason for. A great grievance with them is that no letters or communication in writing of any kind are allowed to be sent from the vessel, and they were glad on this occasion to shout their messages to the party in the boat who took the charge of delivering them, and this is the only way that any news could be sent to friends. No one was allowed to board the vessel, and as the party were in speaking distance all afternoon, numerous messages business and otherwise were orally given. The passengers are very thankful for the papers that were sent them, thus enabling them to glean information about the outer world. Various means are resorted to in order to pass the time pleasantly, but at best it feels very much to them like being in prison. They will be detained until the 2nd July.

Personal.

Mr. A. McF. Campbell, representing the "Canada Life," returned from the mainland yesterday.

Mr. C. D. Rand, real estate agent of New Westminster, is in town.

Rev. J. M. McGucken arrived in the city yesterday from New Westminster.

Mr. Robt. Gardiner, of the Victoria Times, is a passenger by the Queen of the Pacific from San Francisco.

THE Idaho will sail from Seattle this morning for Victoria, and will leave the outer wharf at noon for San Francisco.

THE BOSTON EXCURSION PARTY.—On Tuesday last, the Victoria Transfer Co. drove the whole of the Boston excursion party, some 60 persons, round the city and vicinity in their own vehicles.

OMISSION.—In the school prize list published yesterday the name of Louisa Sylvester who gained the prize for general proficiency in the 2d division was omitted.

MUNICIPAL COUNCIL.

Last evening the usual weekly meeting of the city council was held.

Present—His worship the Mayor and a full board, with the exception of Coun. McCulloch.

The city clerk read the minutes of last meeting, which were confirmed.

COMMUNICATIONS.

From Mr. Lowenberg, inclosing $5, and asking for street line of View street. Granted.

From Mr. Pollard, re Drake and Jackson vs. Corporation, asking for further instruction.

Coun. Gowen moved, seconded by Coun. Porter, that Mr. Pollard be instructed to defend the action. Carried.

From the Hon. John Robson, stating that the government did not think they possess the power to convey any of the Douglas reserve to the corporation.

Coun. W. A. Robertson thought the corporation should try and find out the reason of this. He moved the communication lay on the table. Carried.

Mr. Boyd said that an act was passed that it should be made over.

From Davie & Wilson, enclosing bill of costs against corporation; also the costs in the case of Glenn, amounting to about $78.

Coun. Wriglesworth thought they had spent $400 and received $105.

Mr. Russel corroborated this.

Coun. Wriglesworth thought this was poor satisfaction.

His worship gave the history of the case.

Coun. Gowen thought no authority had been given in this matter by the present council.

Coun. Boyd said the mayor had given authority himself.

On motion of Coun. Wriglesworth the matter was laid over for one week.

From Lieut. C. Spring, asking to borrow a scow for the Victoria Rifle Co's excursion. Granted.

From H. Carrol, asking to use a portion of Waddington alley for building purposes. Granted.

Coun. Gowen objected, as the alley would be blocked if one-third was taken.

Coun. McKillican thought it best to close the alley.

Coun. W. A. Robertson thought it was private property.

From Barnard and Paseo, asking to use a portion of Broad street for building purposes, for Messrs Bossi and Geissellman.

Coun. McKillican said there were many contractors now who stepped in and out without paying their tax.

Mr. Russell thought permission should be granted only on their paying their license in all cases.

Coun. Wriglesworth though that something ought to be made out of granting permission to excavate under the sidewalk.

Coun. McKillican moved that the request be granted subject to street committee on condition that the license be first paid, but no permission to excavate under sidewalk for area. Carried.

From J. McB Smith, requesting that the city surveyor define grade of the sidewalk corner Birdcage Walk and Superior streets; also the level of the drain.

City surveyor instructed to attend to the matter.

From Chas. Hayward, secretary school trustees, asking for the use of the police court room for occasional meetings of the school board.

Coun. W. A. Robertson said it was intended to ask the government to defray the expenses.

Permission granted.

From Frank McNulty and C. J. Camp asking to have the streets and buildings numbered and proposing to put the names of streets for nothing and asking for authority to charge householders fifty cents for numbering.

Coun. Wriglesworth moved that the communication be received and that the council have no objections to the names of the streets being put on without cost to the corporation. Carried.

From Thos. Cashmore asking for a job cutting thistles. Request granted.

From John Austin, agent for 5-acre lot No. 17, known as the Caledonian pic nic ground, submitting plan and stating that the portion necessary for a street would be made over to the corporation on condition that all the oak trees belong to the owners.

Coun. Gowen moved the proposition be accepted. Carried.

From H. L. Saunders and 120 others, asking the corporation to provide for storage of water by a high level reservoir.

Coun. Gowen, seconded by Coun. Boyd, moved that the matter be laid on the table, for consideration in connection with the plan now before the council. Carried.

From a number of citizens, requesting the mayor to call a public meeting at the city hall for Friday, relative to the graving dock, public lands, quarantine, etc., and to consider the relations of the province with the Dominion government generally.

Coun. W. A. Robertson said it was time that they knew who was loyal to the province. There was only one thing to do and that was to demand their rights. Wrong after wrong had been committed and now another missionary was announced as coming from the Dominion.

It was resolved that the mayor be instructed to insert an advertisement in all the city papers calling the meeting.

Coun. J. Robertson moved that instructions be given to call for tenders for the grading of Telegraph street. Carried.

Coun. Wriglesworth moved that the city clerk be directed to give the contractor of the electric light the notice required, to the effect that the city intend to purchase the plant of the company.

Coun. Wriglesworth said that Wharf street, Fort street and Store street were not well lighted, and more light was required, and he thought that if the plant was taken over the profit of $3,000 per annum would provide extra lights. He thought it best to take it now, as they would have the plant, whereas at the end of the term of eight years they would have nothing. Some improvement must be made before the winter.

Coun. McKillican seconded the resolution. He said the agreement was one sided; forty-eight hours' notice was required by the contractors when the light was not satisfactory, after which they could let it drop again.

Coun. W. A. Robertson thought the best thing was to leave it to the taxpayers. He did not see why they should pay twenty five per cent. more than it cost. The manner of testing the light was no test at all.

Coun. J. Robertson thought that the way in which the by-law was drawn up was bad. He was in favor of the light being taken over.

Coun. Boyd would agree to take plant if the company would waive the twenty-five per cent.

Coun. W. A. Robertson moved that the matter of taking the plant over be referred to the ratepayers.

Coun. Wriglesworth said the real estate owners had adopted the light, and it would be best to canvass the city on the subject. To take the vote would cost $120. The thing was shown the people and they took it, and now the best thing was to work it.

The light was satisfactory as far as it went, but more was wanted. It was said the plant cost the sum of nearly $12,500.

Coun. W. A. Robertson thought if the light had been put up in better shape two-thirds would have voted for it. He thought if the company got the actual cost it was enough.

His worship read the bylaw.

The amendment to refer the matter to the ratepayers was put and resulted in a tie.

His worship said he would give his vote against the amendment.

Coun. Wriglesworth's resolution was then put and carried.

Coun. W. A. Robertson moved that Chatham street be graded and that Mr. Pearse and others be requested to dedicate the land given to the use of the council. Carried.

REPORTS.

From the sanitary officer concerning several nuisances. The usual notices were ordered to be issued.

From sanitary committee reporting that they found no nuisance in connection with Pendray soap factory. Received and filed.

From street committee reporting cost of sidewalks on Yates and Oswego streets, and other matters. Also stating that the contract for two piers on James Bay bridge had been let at the rate of $800 for each pier.

The first paragraph in the report relative to constructing the sidewalks on Yates street and over at James Bay in the vicinity of the school was adopted and the balance of the report was ordered to lay over.

Coun. Wriglesworth asked that 500 bills be printed to leave at the houses in connection with the waste of water. Cost not to exceed $5. Granted.

Coun. Wriglesworth asked that the hackmen be notified in relation to the hack stands on Government street.

Coun. Vigelius said the steam drill had finished on Rupert street and there was a small piece of Rock on Beechy street, Mr. Beaven offering in that case to lay 250 feet of sidewalk.

The mayor stated that the steam drill was blasting rock at a cost of about $4 a cubic yard, and that the street committee had contracted to have rock blasted by hand at $2 20, and also that the test of crushing by Jumbo proved to be more expensive than the hammer, and that heavy bills had been incurred for its repairs without authority of the council. He therefore thought it much better that poor men should be employed to do the work.

Coun. Wriglesworth—Use her up.

Coun. Vigelius moved to blast 90 yards of rock on Beechy street.

It was taken as a notice of motion.

Coun. J. Robertson moved that a sidewalk be laid on Chatham street, between Store and Government streets. Carried.

Coun. Boyd moved that in consequence of the Dominion government attempting to take away the licenses from the city, that those who had not paid their licenses for the ensuing term do so on or before the 30th inst, or else that their places be closed by the superintendent of police.

Coun. Boyd moved that Mr. Russell be empowered to lay before the council at its next meeting, a scheme showing what amount of money the corporation has power to borrow under the municipal act, and the cheapest and best method of raising the loan. Carried.

Coun. Boyd moved that the finance committee be instructed to communicate with Edwin Johnson with a view to obtain a legal opinion in England as to withdrawing the city water debentures. Laid over.

Coun. McKillican moved that the steam drill go on to Simcoe street to finish the blasting there. Carried.

The council adjourned.

The Italian Opera.

To-night the season of Italian opera commences at Philharmonic Hall. It is many years since we have had any Italian operatic artists in Victoria, and from the healthy look of the reserved seats plan our city will keep up its reputation as the best "show town" of its size on the Pacific coast. The programme for to-night is replete with the choicest operatic gems, and the two acts of Il Trovatore are almost as familar as "The sweet bye and bye." These artists have been creating a furore wherever they have appeared, and we should like to see the audience turn out in full dress, as is the custom at home on operatic performances. The programme for the second night is not fully decided on, but will include the garden act of "Faust" and two acts from "Il Barbiere de Seviglia." We exbect to see such a crowded house as has been seldom seen of late in Victoria.

Clinton.

(Columbian.)

Judge Harrison for the first time held the county court at Clinton. There were two cases decided. Mr. Harrison has won for himself golden opinions for the pains and attention he bestowed on the very intricate cases brought before him for decision. His appointment is universally popular.

The granary and outhouses of Mr. Allen, M.P.P., were destroyed by fire on Sunday morning at 7 o'clock. The fire was caused by Mr. Allen's firing with a shot-gun at a bushy-tailed rat inside the building. The rat escaped and the building was instantly enveloped in flames. Loss estimated at $500.

Chilliwack.

On Friday last, Mr. V. T. Bartlett, met with an accident; he is building an additional piece to his house, and while working near the top he fell to the ground, and was taken up insensible, having broken his shin bone and some ribs besides other injuries, but as we are fortunate enough to have in our midst a skillful physician, he attended to his injuries, and doubtless will bring him around again.

A DISCOVERY.—One of our evening contemporaries has ascertained that Langley is in New Westminster district, "the old Hudson Bay Fort is named after Mr. Langley who arrived in the province a year and a half ago, and has a farm in the interior about 150 miles from Langley." This will surprise old timers, who have remembrances of Langley as the oldest white man's station on the Lower Fraser, but we live and learn in these days.

OPPOSITION seems to be the order of the day in the steamboat line, and the Yosemite is now advertised to carry passengers to New Westminster from Victoria for 25 cents on Friday, while the fare to Nanaimo by the Western Slope has been 25 cents, with freight to both places at $1 per ton.

EXCURSION.—The Methodist Sunday School excursion will take place on Dominion Day, 1st July, to Pedder Bay, by the steamer Amelia.

THE Methodist Church pulpit platform is beautifully decorated with flags and flowers, in preparation for the lecture to be delivered this evening by Mrs. Judith E. Foster, of Iowa.

Municipal Police Court.

(Before Hon. A. F. Pemberton.)

WEDNESDAY, June 25.

W. Heron wns charged with using obscene language on Turner, Beeton & Co.'s wharf.

After evidence had been given by Officer Hoosen and John Wenger the prisoner admitted using the language but urged his long residence in the province as an excuse.

The Superintendent—Several persons had made complaints.

His honor fined him $2.50 and in default three days' imprisonment.

ROBBERY.

Augusta Bash, on remand, was charged with robbing T. Carrigan of $35.

Officer Walker stated he arrested prisoner on the evening of the 21st at a cabin on Humboldt street. The prosecutor then charged prisoner with stealing the money from him, who admitted having taken the money for safe keeping. Corrigan said the prisoner had returned $15.

His honor committed the prisoner for trial.

HAWKING WITHOUT LICENSE.

John H. Brown, on remand, was charged with the above offence.

Mr. Walls contended the offence committed did not come under the section of the act, and that the evidence was insufficient.

His honor dismissed the case and a similar one against John Wenger was withdrawn by Supt. Bloomfield.

New Westminster.

(Columbian.)

Last Thursday the Dominion Sawmill, of this city, cut 40,000 feet of lumber in 11¼ hours. This is considered a pretty good day's work.

The balance of the Chinamen charged with selling liquor without a license were convicted, except Ah Foo. The case against him was withdrawn.

Mr. Isaac Russell, with his wife and family, arrived from England on Monday, and went down to the North Arm. Mr. Russell is Mr. W. H. Rowling's brother-in-law, and proposes to engage in agricultural operations.

We understand that the provincial secretary has accepted the invitation of the people of Langley to be present at the public pic-nic on the 4th of July. This will afford him an excellent opportunity to meet a large number of his constituents.

(Guardian.)

Mr. J. Shinabarger, of the Columbian staff, met with a painful accident on Saturday last. He was busy working a small press, when by some means his hand caught in the machinery, crushing one of his fingers to a pulp. Jack had the wounded member properly dressed, but is forced to take a couple of weeks' holiday.

AT a meeting with locked doors in Harmony Hall, Tuesday evening, we understand that arrangements were made for the purpose of holding a meeting to discuss British Columbia grievances, the platform put forward by a prominent Fort street politician being "Secession from the Dominion and the mainland."

COLE'S CIRCUS.—Lewis E. Cook and W. C. Boyd, the advance agents of W. W. Cole's mammoth circus and menagerie arrived in town yesterday from the Sound and last night the bill posters were busy in placing the poster engravings on the immense boards built especially for them.

OFFICIAL HOLIDAY.—The 28th of June, Coronation Day, has been declared an official holiday by the Imperial authorities, notice of which will appear in to-day's Gazette, and it will be observed as such by the banks and offices. As it comes so near Dominion Day, it is not likely to be observed generally by the public.

PUBLIC MEETING.—By request of a number of ratepayers a public meeting will take place in the city hall to-morrow evening, for the purpose of discussing the present relations between the federal authorities and the province.

THE Constance boats will be at the Esquimalt pier, and also at Foster's pier to-day at three o'clock for the purpose of conveying guests on board.

FOR NANAIMO.—Yesterday the steamer Amelia left for Nanaimo, followed by the Western Slope en route for the same place.

THE Western Union line was down again last night, and the consequence is that no dispatches were received.

AUSTRALIA.

Latest Advices from the South Pacific Colonies.

A public meeting at Brisbone on the night of May 20th with the mayor in the chair, passed resolutions solemnly and emphatically protesting against the deportation of a large number of relapsed criminals from France to the Pacific islands, which would make the free colonies of Australia a receptacle of the French population. A petition was to be transmitted through the governor to the Queen praying that energetic and effective measures be taken to preserve the colonies from the threatened danger.

The names of 411 men who have been out of work from one week to twelve months are registered with the trade and labor council at Adelaide, N. S. W.

Much suffering is officially reported at Sydney, owing to the stoppage of the government works and the land policy of the government. The announcement that no further relief would be afforded to the unemployed caused a riotous demonstration on May 1st, which was quelled by the police. Those who were sent from Sydney to Wagga Wagga to work on the roads to relieve their distress, behaved with the utmost ingratitude. They were offered 8s. and 9s. a day and were provided with a tent and a week's rations. A portion refused to go to work and the remainder after earning less than a shilling apiece, abandoned their work and went on to Victoria.

A meeting of Americans held at Sydney Consul Charles Kehlo presiding decided to celebrate the 4th of July by a garden party at the grounds of the exhibition building to be followed by a ball in the evening.

The total number of emigrants who arrived in the colony of New South Wales from England last year was 8,369.

Intense discontent prevails among the group of independent liberals in regard to Gladstone's statement concerning Egyptian affairs.

RUSSIA.

WARSAW, June 23.—Floods have destroyed the new building across the Vistula at Hue, which was erected at a cost of £2,000,000. Crowds were standing on the bridge watching the torrent when it began to give way and twenty persons were drowned.

GERMANY.

BERLIN, June 23.—A young man was arrested at Ems to-day who had in his possession a revolver and a dagger, and who, it is believed, had designs on the life of the emperor.

FRANCE.

PARIS, June 23.—The ministry of commerce has issued notice that the cholera in Toulon is sporadic and not Asiatic; that it is due to local infection, and therefore confined to the place of its origin. Eight thousand persons left Toulon yesterday. A camp has been formed for the occupation of the navy crews, and the pupils of the public schools have been dismissed. At Marseilles there is a cholera scare. Orders have been received to bury immediately corpses of cholera victims in deep trenches, which will be covered with chloride of lime. No bodies will be allowed to be taken to a church.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—It rained generally for several hours last night, and this forenoon the sky is still darkly overcast and the wind strong from the south. The shower extended throughout the interior, and as far south as Los Angelos, resulting in heavy damage to cut hay in the field and standing grain. The repeated disasters have made both farmers and merchants gloomy, and business is duller in the city now than at any time during the past four months.

The rains are making life a burden at the many summer resorts, and hundreds are fleeing back to their comfortable city homes. At the ocean place it is raw and disagreeable and the interior resorts are equally unattractive. Yosemite is reported to be a vast mud hole, and several parties on the road to the valley have turned back.

SOUTHERN STATES.

WHEELING, June 23.—The ghastly history of a premature burial has just come to light. A young bride of this city was interred in May of last year. On exhuming the remains last week for removal to another cemetery the friends were horrified to find the body turned over, the hands filled with long tufts of hair and the face, neck and bosom scratched and scarred. The lining of the coffin was torn into fragments in the desperate efforts of the entombed victim to escape. Since the discovery the young husband has been prostrated and his life is despaired of. The name is withheld.

EASTERN STATES.

VINCENNES, Ind., June 24.—At 12:20 last night a mob of about 50 people went to the jail, battered the door down with a rail taken from the track, took Oliver Canfield, who murdered Mrs. Mollie Gherkan some time ago, and hanged him to a telegraph pole. The body was left hanging until 5 a.m., when it was cut down by friends. The mob was quiet but determined. The sheriff was at the jail but was overpowered and no resistance was made. The murder was an atrocious one, Canfield having killed the woman from jealousy.

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 24.—While the cold water army of children were giving an entertainment this evening a temporary pyramid on the stage gave way and seventy-five children fell with it, but none were injured. A lighted kerosene lamp fell at the same time and a panic ensued. No serious results.

BISMARCK, Dak., June 24.—A horse thief named Jacob O'Neil was caught and lynched in McLean county, 45 miles north of here on Sunday evening. It is reported this evening that four more of the gang were pursued to Mouse river where one was shot and three lynched.

KINGSTON, June 13.—News has been brought here that on Amherst Island a father left a bottle of brandy he had brought from Kingston within reach of his son. Before going to bed the boy remarked, "Dad see how tight I am," and reeled to bed. In the morning he was a corpse.

WINNIPEG, June 13.—A fire at Moose Jaw destroyed Walshe's livery and feed stables. Nine horses perished, and nearly all the buggies, cutters and wagons were consumed, besides $200 in cash belonging to Mr. Walsh, and $180 belonging to an employe. Mr. Walsh was badly burned in trying to remove the horses. Loss, $6,000; insurance $1,500. Had not a heavy rain prevailed the town would have been destroyed.

It is reported numerous changes will be made in Canadian Pacific railway officials.

OTTAWA, June 14.—Jas Campbell, of the Parliamentary library staff, brother-in law of the Hon. G. W. Ross, Minister of Education for Ontario, died this morning. He had been ill for some time.

The King of Grain Harvesters.

In the year 1883 there were 18,000 Deering Twine Binders sold, and for the present year of 1884 the manufacturers are making 25,000 of these celebrated machines. This is no baby binder, but cut a swath 6 feet 4 inches in width without the inside horse walking in the standing grain. The new Knotter for this year is the success of the age. These machines are simple, light and strong, and easier on a team than any other machine made. Sole agent for B. C., E. C. Prior, Victoria, B. C.

SMALLPOX.

Unsatisfactory Statements as to How the Public is Endangered.

There are no new cases of smallpox on the City of Tokio, providing reports are truthfully made, but all of those directly interested, excepting the public, are very reticent regarding the matter. No one seems to know anything definite. Custom House officials do not know when the transfer to the hulk China of the Chinese remaining on the steamer is to be made, nor are they better posted as to when the Tokio is to dock. Their impression, as hesitatingly given, is that the transfer is in progress, and that the steamer will be fumigated and docked within a day or so. What has become of the several hundred Chinese that managed to get ashore before the discovery of the case of smallpox is a question yet to be solved.

Dr. McAllister states that the ship's physician said there was no sickness aboard, but that a passenger had died and was buried at sea. In examining the passengers he mustered all on deck, and as they passed by him his count tallied with that of the ship's manifest, and the health certificate, as follows, was given him:

June 15, 1884.

We, the undersigned, hereby certify that the officers and crew of the City of Tokio, number 143, and the passengers, numbering 1,151, a total of 1,294, now on board this vessel are all at this date in good health, and free from any contagious disease and have been while en route to this port.

(Signed) JEFF MAURY, Captain,
J. O. KIERNAN, Surgeon.

He then gave the captain permission to dock the vessel. Between 1 and 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, and after half the passengers had disembarked, the surgeon on the vessel was told by the steerage steward that there was a sick child below. Dr. Kiernan visited the child and decided that it had the smallpox, and immediately reported the circumstance to the Health Office. When the report came in Dr. McAllister was present, and accompanied by Dr. Meares, the Health Officer, visited the ship at once, and found a Chinese child, some 6 or 7 years old, suffering from confluent smallpox. By his direction the child and its mother were removed to the Twenty sixth-street Hospital.

Yesterday morning the quarantine officer visited the steamer again and arranged to have the remaining passengers transferred to the China, and the precautionary measure was taken to require one and all to make a change of clothing, so as to permit of the old being fumigated. Dr. McAllister thinks the child had been conceaeid, and that it had been sick seven or eight days.—S. F. Call.

HAMILTON, June 15—The first drowning accident of the season occurred to-day. Seymour Storm, agent for the Toronto Tea Company, left the foot of Wentworth-street this evening with three companions in a row boat for the Beach. When three miles from the city and a mile from the shore two of the party attempted to change places and the boat was capsized. Seymour, a strong, bold swimmer, started for the shore and sank after going about a hundred yards. Seymour's home is on Elgin street, Hamilton. The body has not yet been recovery.

KINGSTON, June 14—Barriefield, a small village on the east side of the Cataraqui River, and on the brow of the hill behind Fort Henry, was the scene of an elopement sensation yesterday. John Ryan is an old man of 70, who had been married twice, but who was a lonely widower, matrimonially inclined, when a young woman a few months ago arrived from Limerick. She engaged as a domestic where he lived, and in fact began the courting. His home was a comfortable one, and when the old man, in a tender moment (she aged 35 and a widow) proposed, she accepted. She was, however, after her wedding admired by another one, one George Smith, who made her acduaintance in crossing the ocean, and who joined the battery. Of late they saw each other frequently, and on Thursday completed the plans for their fight. On the following day Mrs. Ryan, after the departure of her husband for his work, came to the city, purchased a trunk and portmanteau, and a suit of clothing for Smith. The clothing she took to the rifle range where Smith was secreted; the trunk and portmanteau to the house, filling them with considerable of the old man's property. She also took some $90 belonging to him, and then a cab which she had engaged, calling, started for Gananoque, picking Smith up on the way. At Gananoque theo took the boat for the American side, and thus they disappeared.

MONTREAL, June 12.—A private meeting of the depositors of the Exchange Bank, called by Mr. Davis. was held to-day for the purpose of hearing Mr. Davis as to his experience in connection with his recent investigation against certain directors of the bank. After he had imparted what is said to have been valuable information of a private character, the meeting unanimously resolved that in view of the fact that Mr. Davis has taken action against two of the directors, a committee be formed to aid him in carrying out these and all other actions that he may deem fit to institute against the late directors interested civilly and criminally. A committee was formed to assist Mr. Davis. The depositors passed a vote of thanks to Mr. Davis for his assiduty in pursuing the actions, and for all that he had done. The depositors also approved of what had been done by the liquidators. The opinion is expressed by those conversant with the Bank's affairs that if the Government would abandon their claim to being preferential creditors there is in the hands of the liquidators a dividend of at least 25 per cent. besides outstanding debts.

OTTAWA, June 13 –There is no truth in the Montreal statement that the Finance Department contemplate the withdrawal of Government deposits in various banks in order to convert them into bullion so as to keep the Government reserve to the required strength of 40 per cent. of the circulation. The required strength is not forty, but fifteen per cent. Very satisfactory arrangements have been made for a further supply of specie. The Government have nothing to do with the bank reserves, which are the ones that must be kept to 40 per cent. of their circulation.

OTTAWA, June 13—All the whitefish and salmon hatched at the Fisheries museum, Victoria hall, have been placed in natural streams with the exception of some 25,000 now in the troughs. This latter number has also been asked for to be deposited in some of the surrounding lakes.

A break in the Champlain canal, at which about 200 feet of embarkment was carried away, will cause the suspension of navigation by that channel, and consequently will effect the mill men of Ottawa.

The local police authorities can do very little in connection with the Quio murder case. A few officers have been on the lookout for Woolsey, the murder, but no trace of him could be found in the city. It is supposed that he has come in this direction. The Quio authorities should have despatched a constable after the accused, which, it seems, they have neglected to do.

Cotton yarns are to be admitted into the Dominion free of duty by authority of an order-in-Council published in to-day's Gazette

KINGSTON, June 14—Arthur Robinson, 22 years of age, who was married two months, was found lying in a pool of water near Maberly dead. As he was sober it is thought that while on his way home he knelt down to get a drink took a fit, and was drowned. His wife found the body.

There are serious occurrences on the Ontario and Quebec railroad. The road is about to be opened when a sink hole appears, and then everything is delayed. Now the trouble is at Kaladar. The track went down under heavy freight trains. and being raised to the grade again down five feet. It has since continued settling, and there is now water over the track for a distance of 200 feet in a place where trees two feet in diameter were growing before the road was built.

☞ The attention of intending Assurers is called to the advantages specially offered by this Association.

THIS ASSOCIATION MERITS THE CONFIDENCE THAT THE PUBLIC IS REPOSING IN IT FROM THE FOLLOWING FACTS:

The Security offered to Policy-holders is unsurpassed by any Company doing business in Canada

It has no schemes of Insurance, but the well-established lines, hence the Policy-holders cannot be misled as to their contracts.

Its statements to the public can be readily understood, its cash statement showing every item of income and how expended.

Its position is ascertained annually from a detailed valuation in which every item of liability is included.

Its progress has been unexampled in the history of insurance in Canada.

Its policies are indisputable after three years and non-forfeitable after two years' existence.

Its profits are distributed upon an equitable basis. The profits to one class of policy-holders are not lessened to give larger profits to any other class, which method affords superior advantages over the uniform bonus plan of distribution.

☞ Liberal conditions as to residence and travel.
